

Omaha Steaks Scholarship Award Recipients Announced

The following students, all members of the "Omaha Steaks Family," have been selected to receive scholarships for the 2016-2017 academic year:

Hannah Valentine, daughter of Kelly Valentine and Jim Valentine of Overland Park, Kan. Hannah, a graduate of Blue Valley High School in Overland Park, Kan. will attend San Diego State University in San Diego, Cali., where her field of study will be health sciences.

Brianna Ledger, daughter of Jack and Kaylene Christian and Terry and Jennifer Ledger of Omaha, Neb. Brianna, a graduate of Millard South High School in Omaha, Neb., will attend Northwest Missouri State in Maryville, Mo., where her field of study will be veterinary science.

Tanner Lange, son of Bob and Colleen Lange of Omaha, Neb. Tanner, a graduate of Skutt Catholic High School in Omaha, Neb., will attend Rockhurst University in Kansas City, Mo., where his field of study will be exercise science.

Sarah Holmes, daughter of Todd and Holly Holmes of Omaha, Neb. Sarah, a 2015 graduate of Concordia High School in Omaha, Neb., attends the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, Neb., where her field of study is economics and finance.

Lexi Yagodinski, daughter of Ken and Patty Yagodinski of Omaha, Neb. Lexi, a graduate of Ralston High School in Omaha, Neb., will attend Metropolitan Community College in Omaha, Neb. where her field of study will be criminal justice.

Cole Horner, son of Paul and Angela Horner of Omaha, Neb. Cole, a graduate of Omaha Central High School in Omaha, Neb., will attend the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, Neb., where his field of study will be business.

The six scholarship award recipients were selected for their academic accomplishments, leadership, community involvement and participation in school activities. "We sincerely congratulate this year's scholarship recipients and their families," said Omaha Steaks President Bruce Simon, "and are proud to have them representing Omaha Steaks."