

New Podcast "Brain of Command" From Omaha Steaks and The CEO Forum Group Reveals The Keys to Transformative Leadership

Podcast featuring CEOs Nate Rempe and Robert Reiss reveals magical hacks for real-world leadership

(OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 18, 2025) - The new podcast "Brain of Command," co-hosted by Nate Rempe, President and CEO of Omaha Steaks, and Robert Reiss, CEO of The CEO Forum Group, is now available for streaming. The podcast centers on the "Magic 11" behavioral hacks that can help leaders transform into effective CEOs, no matter where they start on the organizational chart today. Through monthly episodes, Rempe and Reiss will talk with other industry-leading CEOs, breaking down what it takes to command a room, a career, and maybe even a company.

"This podcast is about unveiling the leadership methods I used over two decades to catapult my career from cubical to corner office. We explore each of them through raw, practical conversations with the people who are actually living these experiences," said Rempe, who shares his personal story of going from a once introverted programmer to a charismatic CEO at one of America's most iconic brands.

The first "Brain of Command" episode features Joe Hart, CEO of Dale Carnegie Training, a global leader in leadership training, and it introduces the first of the Magic 11 hacks: Intentional Déjà Vu. Intentional Déjà Vu is a unique approach to preparing for high-stakes situations by mentally envisioning, in great detail, the first few moments so, when the time comes to perform, it feels like you've been there before.

"We're pulling back the curtain on how leaders think and act when the spotlight is off," added Reiss. "We want to give listeners strategies they can use immediately as they manage their teams."

Listeners can expect one new episode per month, with future guests including CEOs from iconic brands, innovative startups and everything in between.

"Brain of Command" is available now on Spotify, Apple Podcasts, YouTube and 65 AM/FM radio stations nationwide. Visit <https://www.omahasteaks.com/podcast> for updates, episode archives and more.
